

PRIVACY POLICY

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do. Apex Capital Management places great emphasis on preventing breaches and unauthorized access to client and Firm information.

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND USE

For a better experience we may require you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information, including but not limited to your name, phone number, and postal address. The information that we collect will be used to contact or identify you. The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. We collect your personal information when you open an account or give us contact information, enter into an investment adviser contract or give us your income information, and/or tell us about your investment portfolio. We may also collect your personal information from other companies. In certain situations, the information we request is for the purpose of determining your accreditation status.

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

LIMITING SHARING

Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness, affiliates from using your information to market to you, and sharing for non-affiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
